Extract from the will of Henry Crabb Robinson, dated 12 March 1865.

It is my especial desire that all my letters copies of letters journals pocket books and manuscripts of every description (except title deeds and securities for money) should be retained by my said friends W. S. Cookson and E. W. Field and accordingly I give the same to them absolutely with full power to destroy or preserve them at their discretion and it is my desire that under no change of circumstance should they form part of the residue of my personal Estate or become the property of my next of kin. Further I give to the said William Strickland Cookson and Edward Wilkins Field all my printed books of every kind and description to be at their entire and absolute disposal with liberty to place such of them as they may select in the libraries of one or more of the public institutions with which they and myself are alike connected and their distributions of the books to be on no account called in question or disputed.

Edwin Wilkins Field died on 30 July 1871 and William Strickland Cookson died on 5 July 1877. On 19 June 1878 the executors of the latter wrote to Dr. Williams's Trust offering the archive, in the possession of Cookson at his death and remaining at his residence, to the Trust for Dr. Williams's Library. This letter was read at a General Meeting of Trustees on 20 June 1878, and the offer accepted.

DIARY

HCR's diary is contained in the following thirty three notebooks. Gaps in the sequence of entries are not noted here except in vol. 14. These gaps are covered by the sequence of travel diaries listed subsequently. Pencilled notes on the endpapers and lines in the entries were made by Thomas Sadler in the course of his editing portions of the diary.

TYPESCRIPT OF HCR's DIARY

The typescript of HCR's Diary, made in the first decade of the twentieth century covers the period 1811—1853, the first twenty-three volumes of the diary. It is of the diary only, and does not include the Travel Diaries. The decision to end the typescript with the volume ending on 23 Jun 1853 is said to have been made because by then the Diary contains less interesting matter, most HCR's contemporaries and famous friends having died by that date.

The typescript is divided up as follows:

- I. 8 Jan 1811 – 31 Dec 1811.
- II. 1 Jan 1812 – 31 Dec 1812.
- III. 1 Jan 1813 – 31 Dec 1813.
- IV.1 1 Jan 1814 – 31 Dec 1814.
- IV.2 1 Jan 1815 – 31 Dec 1815.

Thereafter the volumes correspond with the volumes of the Diary.

- V. 1 Jan 1816 – 7 Jul 1817.
- VI. 8 Jul 1817 – 2 Dec 1818.
- VII. 3 Dec 1818 – 13 Mar 1820.
- VIII. 14 Mar 1820 – 17 Nov 1821.
- IX. 18 Nov 1821 – 30 Apr 1823.
- X. 1 May 1823 – 4 Nov 1824.
- XI. 5 Nov 1824 – 30 Jan 1826.
- XII. 31 Jan 1826 – 2 Aug 1827.
- XIII. 3 Aug 1827 – 30 Nov 1828.
- XIV. 1 Dec 1828 – 13 Jun 1829.
7 Oct 1831 – 19 Jun 1832.
- XV. 20 Jun 1832 – 7 Jun 1834.
- XVI. 8 Jun 1834 – 21 Aug 1837.
- XVII. 22 Aug 1837 – 26 Oct 1839.
- XVIII. 27 Oct 1839 – 25 Feb 1842.
- XIX. 26 Feb 1842 – 2 Jun 1844.
- XX. 3 Jun 1844 – 1 Dec 1846.
- XXI. 2 Dec 1846 – 19 Jan 1850.
- XXII. 20 Jan 1850 – 23 Oct 1851.
- XXIII. 24. Oct 1851 – 23 Jun 1853.

THE TRAVEL DIARIES

It was HCR's practice not to take his diary away with him when he travelled on holiday but to take another volume with him in which to record his activities. Apart from the first volume listed below, dating from his years in Germany, the Travel diaries extend from 1814 to 1866. Sometimes, on a much later journey, he used blank pages of an earlier volume to make his entries. Some of these volumes have, at the other hand, accounts of money spent during the journey and at the places where he stayed. Occasionally, in after years, he added a few comments or other memoranda at the end of the entries.

1. 14 Jun 1801 – ___ Aug 1801; 2 Sep 1801 – 18 Sep 1801; 23 Sep 1801 – 6 Nov 1801; 17 Nov 1801 – 16 Jan 1802.

TRANSCRIPTIONS OF THE SHORTHAND PASSAGES IN THE DIARIES

The transcript of the shorthand passages in HCR's diaries is contained in three foolscap, hard-covered, exercise books. On the flyleaf of the first is written

The Diaries of Henry Crabb Robinson. The passages in Shorthand deciphered and transcribed, with a key, by R. Travers Herford. Librarian. 1921.
Vol. I. Diary Vols I – XII.

On the flyleaf of the second is written

The Diaries of Henry Crabb Robinson. The passages in shorthand deciphered and transcribed by R. Travers Herford, Librarian, 1921.
Vol. II. Diary Vols XIII – XXVII.

The third volume has

Shorthand passages in MSS. of H. Crabb Robinson deciphered and transcribed by R. Travers Herford.

This volume transcribes passages from the 1801 Journal, the Memorandum Book of 1804, and the series of Travel Diaries. Some of the entries are on loose sheets inserted, by both R. T. Herford and another. Some of the entries written in the volume are by Stephen K. Jones.

REMINISCENCES

HCR began his reminiscences in 1845 and continued them until October 1859, writing on quarto folded sheets, now fixed in four volumes.

1. Begins with an account of his family and his childhood years, then the years 1790–1809. ff. 433.
2. 1810—1825. ff. 443.
3. 1826—1833. ff. 440.
4. 1834—1843. ff. 426, followed by Reminiscences: Coleridge, Wordsworth, Lamb &c., continued to 1829, written 1849-1851, ff. 427—483.

There is a bound Index to the Reminiscences, which is wrongly lettered as Index of Letters.

ANECDOTES & MEMORANDA

A bound volume in which has been fixed five small notebooks, taken apart.

A notebook, commenced in 1834, of Anecdotes of people “not taken from print,” the “first three pages... copied from an old book begun in 1815 & lost.” Contains 173 anecdotes, the last entered in 1864, the date of a further note inscribed on the inside of the front cover.

“Jemima Robinson’s Registry of births & deaths of her family.” Notes made by Jemima Robinson, née Crabb, 1736-1793, mother of HCR.

“Itinerary of foreign travel from April 3d. 1800 to November 1838. Subsequent itinerary and other items less regularly kept to the end of 1851.”

Memoranda 1807 Jan: 21 to Decr 31. [In German.]

Memoranda July 19 1808 Jany. 18 1809. [In English and German.]

Loose at the end a copy of HCR’s paper: Dissenters’ Chapels Bill. Brief reply to the allegations contained in the petitions or Resolutions of the opponents to the Bill. Written in 1844. see Bundle 5.XV. [This copy given to the Library by Rev. Richard Acland Armstrong, 3 Jun 1903, according to the note by F. H. Jones.]

CORRESPONDENCE

The greater part of HCR's correspondence is fixed in thirty-two quarto volumes, to each of which is appended a list of the contents. At the beginning of the first volume is some older family correspondence and at the conclusion of the last volume are some items of earlier years previously omitted. Occasionally a letter has been wrongly dated and appears out of the chronological sequence. The year divisions of the volumes are as follows:

1725 – 1799.
1800 – 1803.
1804.
1805 – 1808.
1809 – 1817.
1818 – 1826.
1827 – 1829.
1830 – 1831. [In pencil: Withdrawn – not available for conservation reasons ch/dw?]
1832 – 1833.
1834 – 1835.
1836 – 1837.
1838 – 1840.
1841 – 1842.
1843.
1844.
1845.
1846.
1847.
1848.
1849.
1850.
1851.
1852.
1853.
1854.
1855.
1856.
1857.
1858.
1859.
1860 – 1863.
1864 – 1867.

THE FOLLOWING ARE SHELVED ABOVE THE BOUND VOLUMES OF LETTERS.

Leather bound notebook containing copies of reports of legal cases, 1762, 1767, copied by HCR when an attorney's clerk. ff. 52, the remainder unused.

The last item has a note in another hand (remarkably like Rev. Thomas Morgan's!) of a speech by Lord Mansfield in the case of Sir Thomas Harrison agt. Allen Evans. Petition in Error:

NB The following Speech was penned from Memory by Dr Philip Furneaux, & was shewn to the noble Speaker, who pronounced it to be a faithful Representation of what he had delivered.

Leather bound notebook containing a fair copy of HCR's letters from Germany to his brother, pp. 386.

This is in the hand of James Davis, HCR's clerk, with occasional corrections by HCR. Some sentences have been omitted in the copy, as have also the 11th and 18th letters.

Of the 11th letter, of 7 Apr 1801 it is said: Was a long letter, but altogether personal, and unfit for perusal by any except those for whom it was written.

Of the 18th letter, of Nov 1801 it is said: This letter dated Naumburg 18th Novr. and continued at Jena, tho' written on a Journey was entirely on family and personal subjects. [This letter does not survive].

With pencilled notes by Mrs. McKillop (I believe) indicating omissions and marking the paging of the originals.

Leather bound notebook, the boards detached, containing mounted newspaper cuttings of HCR's articles in The Times as a foreign correspondent, and compiled by him.

From the Times 1807. pp. 46.

Dispatches dated 7 March – 29 Sep 1807 "Banks of the Elbe" etc., printed from 25 March – 10 Oct 1807.

Miscellanies 1807. Appendix to the Banks of the Elbe. pp. 11.

Shores of the Bay of Biscay. August 1808. pp. 55.

Dispatches dated 2 August 1808 – 15 January 1809, printed 9 August 1808 – 26 January 1809.

Appendix. Annexed to the Correspondence. pp. [55-82].

Attached at the front are photocopies of articles from The Times of 26 February, 5 and 6 March 1807, sent by HCR but not by him. [Presented by Dr. S. H. Steinberg, 23 Oct 1963.]

The Monthly Register. Vol. I. April to October 1802 [sic, there was no issue for October].

Vol. II. November 1802 – April 1803.

[Pencilled note in left margin: 'BOXED'] HCR's copy, with contributions by him. On the flyleaf of the second volume is this: "The M.S. name put to some articles is the writing of a man who tho' a wit has in this instance shewn himself only impertinent. H. C. R."

HCR Bundle 7.I-VI

This Bundle contains the remains of Elton Hamond (1786-1820), letters to and from him, some writing by him, and copies of material made for HCR from originals which no longer survive. There are other letters concerning him dating from after his death. Hamond committed suicide at midnight 31 Dec 1819-1 Jan 1820. For some account of him see Sadler, vol. ii., pp. 141-57. At the end of February 1850 HCR returned to Hamond's second cousins, the Revds. Thomas Elton, Joseph Kirkman, and John Miller a parcel of their letters to Hamond and perhaps other papers also, which he had retained for thirty years. They advised the burning of the remaining papers.

These remaining papers were never wholly sorted by Professor Edith Morley and her assistants, only the items which comprise Bundle 7.I were noted by them.

HCR Bundle 7.I

Miscellaneous letters.

HCR Bundle VIII [(erroneously?) pencilled in: 'sic HCR Bundle 8']

The Masquerier Album. A large album, ff. 70, filled with letters, autographs, prints, etc., pasted down or otherwise affixed, some at the end loose, collected by the artist John James Masquerier (1778-1855) and bequeathed by him to HCR. Some items are addressed to his wife (whom he married in 1812) Rachel (d. 1850), daughter of Duncan Forbes of Thainstone and widow of Robert Eden Scott (1770-1811), Professor of Moral Philosophy at Aberdeen, the recipient of some of the letters.

It is likely that the album was made up as now for HCR and that the papers were received by him loose, see Diary for 24 Apr 1855.

After HCR's death the album was given by his executors to Miss Grace Field, who entered an inscription to that effect inside the front board. It was presented to Dr. Williams's Library in 1916 by the Misses Mary, Susan, and Emily Field.
